Rhonda Solis makes history – first Latina to serve as CD8 School Board Member

Greeley, CO — Tonight, Greeley’s Rhonda Solis has made history.

Solis will be the first-ever CD8 representative to the Colorado Board of Education. She defeated Republican Peggy (Littleton) Propst to represent the state’s newest congressional district.

Solis, a Colorado native and community Latina activist said, “I am honored to serve on the state education board. It’s time to give the tools and resources to our students and families so everyone in our public education system thrives.”

She added, “I am so grateful to my family, friends, campaign staff, and volunteers who supported me through this campaign.”

Rhonda Solis served two terms on the Greeley-Evans District 6 Board of Education and advocated for the new district. Rhonda will bring her leadership experience to the State Board of Education. CD8 stretches from Thornton, Northglenn, and Commerce City north to Brighton, Fort Lupton, Frederick, and Greeley. It has the highest percentage of Latino residents in the state.
